

CUSTOMER SUPPORT

Always close to you.

PRODUCT OVERVIEW

We work with our customers to understand their equipment needs to select the product more suited to their business requirements. We believe that equipment sales are the beginning, not the end, of our relationships with customers and for this reason our support incorporates a range of services including parts, technical support, warranty and training.

Part Service

Components and parts always available and ready for the delivery all over the world.

Technical and training support

Komplet provide qualified service team to ensure that we have the ability to provide technical support when our customers need it, and to create the most profit for you in the lifecycle of the product.

Warranty

Komplet warrants its new equipment to be free of defects in material or manufacture for a specified period from the date the equipment is first used.
